

In these days when there is so much danger and fear in our country, Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. Such bias and self-serving on the part of corporate giants to protect their profits is not to be tolerated by the public they are intended to serve. Our only recourse is to depend on you to keep practices like the airing of shows like this to not go unpunished.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. We are counting on you to protect our airwaves. Thank you.
